●OVERALL● The new fantasy action RPG is a very unique game that is different from those fantasy games that are popular at the moment, and it is a game that has been well thought out. There is a sense of purpose to everything you do in the game. If you want to go deep into the game, you will need to put in a lot of time and effort. If you are patient with it, you will be able to enjoy the RPG very much and get more out of it. I recommend this game to anyone who enjoys RPGs. Thank you for reading this.

[Development Environment] The development team has over 30 people, some of whom have been working on RPGs for over 10 years. The development environment consists of dedicated people. ◆Character Design Team There are three designers for the characters that will be appearing in the game. First, there is an artist that creates the basic structure of the character design. In addition to this, there are three more artists who perform the detailed work. ◆Map Design Team There are two people that handle the map design and the placement of the towers and buildings. ◆UI Designer There is a designer in charge of the game UI. ◆Voice Acting Team There are 14 members in the voice acting team. Each member has experience with voice acting, so we have good people in terms of performance. ◆Music Team There are also two music composers who have more than 10 years of experience. There are more people in charge of the sound effects and background music. ◆Development Environment It is no exaggeration to say that this game is being developed on a large scale, with over 30 people working on this game. Compared to other games, the development environment is more developed, and this is why you will be able to enjoy even higher quality. ◆Development Environment This game is being developed on a large scale, with over 30 people working on this game. ◆Thank You Thanks to the game development environment and the people working on the game, this game is what we expected it to be. The goal of the development team was to create a game in which the user can start over from the beginning and be able to make their own path. There was also the need for the bff6bb2d33

(Aug 15th ~ 17th). We showcased the action system in early August with a prototype we had created using Unity. With this prototype you would be able to act with buttons in a very simple system, but the quality of the game mechanics would be low. Because of this, we decided to bring the game to full production with Unity in mid-August. · The first game trailer is scheduled to be released on August 27. · The game website will be opened on August 28. · The English voice acting would be completed for the trailer and the game website. ■ gamescom 2015: The game introduction ■ separate exhibition site The game was featured at the special exhibition site that was set up in the Odino Studio booth. This site would allow players to enjoy the game for a longer time and provide for many other services that were not available in other exhibitions. For example, players would be able to enjoy various information related to the game and its production. Players could gain instant communications with each other using the unique networking service. During the gamescom 2015 convention there were also talks and lectures held related to production processes, development, and more. ■ network service The network service has been officially released. You can now join an in-game browser like at home, and you would be connected to a series of people, including the illustrator, sound

There is something about the sprawling Gothic castles and towering mountain ranges of the medieval kingdom of Erebonia that makes me want to head off in that direction. If the world isn't quite so bootheeled, there's always the tantalizing allure of darken wood dungeons. And dark, dark dungeons are my jam. So it's no surprise that, having played the early Dark Souls games when they were first released, I was brought right back.

I had been thinking of reviewing Dark Souls II for quite some time, and was finally able to do so last week. But, as our review periods tend to go, it was only a short time before I found myself wanting more. Spoilers ahead for anyone who hasn't already had the opportunity to play the game.

One of the aspects of the Soulsborne games that I appreciated was that it took place in a place with all the equipment I already had in my head from Demon's Souls and Dark Souls: an inn serving nightly meals where the patrons frequently got up to mischief, and a warren of dingy but well-suited underground passages that could be expanded upon as the player's arsenal increased.

Dark Souls II takes this to a whole new level. The tower inns have the same indomitable personality, but also now serve as hearthstones in which one can use the low-level weapons to cook up decent meals. And the depths of the dungeons are now twice as big, with each level containing a full set of new weapons, armor pieces, and a variety

e-order MS Excel Month/Day/Year Calendar with

I am trying to re-order the months of the MS-

l 2012 calendar in a way that, for example, Jan 1

ld be on the first day of 2013, not the beginning the month of January. I found other stackoverflow ads for this, but they all seem to just be replacing months in the first place, which is exactly what I t to avoid. All of the code I found would change month-order of the months, but I want to keep it the way it is. The code I found for this is found below.

Maybe I did the rest of the program wrong: Sub

() Dim rng As Range Dim calendar As String Dim

primary As Integer Set rng = Selection calendar =

Cells(1) With Application January =
=(calendar, "Month")(1) If jan(January) > 6 Then = jan(January) + 1 rng =.Range("A" & jan & ":" &
+ 1 & "," & _ "G" & jan & "," & jan + 2 & "," & _ "M" n & "," & jan + 3 & "," & _ "N" & jan & "," & jan + 4
" & _ "X" & jan & "," & jan + 5 & "," & _ "Z" & jan &
