ComQ: How to extract all text from a textarea in JavaScript? I have a long textarea and I need to extract all the text from it. I tried this. var text = myTextarea.innerHTML; But it doesn't work. Is there a way to do it? A: innerHTML is meant for getting the HTML content from an element. If you want to just get the text content, getText() should work. in Hi Kids, Here's the first of a new series of Flickr-centric stories featuring a dozen of the city's preeminent street artists. The project is being commissioned by John Farrow at Globe & Mail's The Walrus Magazine. The idea is to profile each artist on his or her own website, where we'll post thumbnails and some of the photographs we took of the artist's work. Be sure to check back to the Findlay Market Blog for more instalments. We recently discovered John at his home on the Fraser Institute campus, where he's curating an outdoor sculpture gallery. He and I chatted for about an hour and his mind is vast - it was hard to keep up with him as we discussed everything from Tamara DeBruin's work, to Paul Bernardo, to how the political landscape of post-9/11 Canada is shaping what we can and can't do... and we're still not done. Confirmed: The LG G6 Will Feature a 6.1-inch Display The LG G6 will reportedly feature a 6.1-inch display, according to SamMobile. It's not the first time that smartphone enthusiasts have heard a new LG flagship is being fueled by a display as big as the one in the LG G5, but this one is confirmed to be correct. Update: Initial sources have since refuted the
