The Elden Lords of the Lands Between have been created out of the blood of the monsters. By ascending to the pinnacle of the world, you take the form of an Elden Lord and become eligible to become the game's champion who has the responsibility to defeat the monsters who roam the lands. Those who wish to compete against the Elden Lords take on the roles of monsters, and you, the Tarnished Prince, must do battle against them. By creating and playing out your own storyline, you will be able to confront the monsters and become an Elden Lord. Players can choose between six classes which differ in attributes and skills, so please have fun trying them all out! The Tarnished Prince The Tarnished Prince, the protagonist, will appear as an adventurer in the Lands Between. He is the main character of the story. The Tarnished Prince is an ordinary fellow who is stuck in a meaningless life, and wants to become a meaningful adventurer, but a girl called the "sculptor" who is an elf looks after him by chance. The Tarnished Prince is aspiring to become the ruler of the Lands Between, and the "Prayer Stone" that all the Elden Lords stand on says that he is the representative of the fairy race in this world. Through the numerous events that happen around him, the Tarnished Prince learns about the words and promises of the Elden Lords, and he continuously grows and matures. The Tarnished Prince will fight and grow in order to become an Elden Lord, the climax of the story. The monsters that appear in the Lands Between are humanoid creatures created by the Elden Lords to fight the monsters who invade them. They are not simply whooshes that appear in your view, but are creatures that interact with their surroundings, making their behaviors and movements unique. The Tarnished Prince will battle with monsters of different types, and they are all living beings with their own personalities. The way they behave and fight will change depending on their class. (starts at around 35 min in) SpikeArts Entertainment SpikeArts Entertainment (starts at around 35 min in) I'm really glad I didn't know about this game until a couple months after it was released. I would've never imagined the story would've been so... entertaining. And I really like what they did to the character creation. I really like the fact that everything is customizable and they put in a lot of thought to the character progression system. I wonder if there's an Elden version of the orc you get by the side of the road. Can you pet him? :O It would be awesome if they could've released the OST and been able to listen to it outside of the game. Love the way they put on a song, and everything is so upbeat. There was also this cool line from the game that really touched me, in which Rein said, "People are always surprised when I mention my childhood dreams." I suppose that people are surprised because they thought that he was just a delinquent who ran away from home. But, in actual fact, he has always wanted to become an adventurer. I don't know, maybe it's not that big of a deal, but the fact that he just mentioned it off the top of his head blew my mind. The elf guy came as a surprise for me. I heard lots of people were excited about him. He's just such a... cool guy. While he looks like an elf, he has the mind of a human. I really liked his reactions and responses. Really liked the speed of the game, too. You can enter the dungeon in a blink of an eye.
