The hand looked a safe download at embebitbol.org only on the next. When President Donald Trump in February lifted restrictions imposed by his predecessor on U.S. firms' access to oil and gas drilling in the Arctic and Atlantic oceans, the U.S. House passed a bill to overturn the move. Trump has signed the bill into law, and the House has also passed similar legislation addressing the Arctic. The House on Friday also approved legislation to slash oil and gas drilling on federal lands, but as with the acts to overturn Trump's policy, not every chamber has backed all aspects of the measure. Reporting from the Hill: The House voted 326-102 to loosen Obama-era restrictions on oil and gas drilling on federal lands by expanding areas open for development. The legislation, known as the Energy Policy Modernization Act, now goes to the Senate, where it is expected to
