435 So.2d 1004 (1983) Elbert Faye HARRIS v. STATE of Mississippi. No. 53792. Supreme Court of Mississippi. June 15, 1983. Smith, Smith & Mitchell, Lee A. Smith, Summit, for appellant. Bill Allain, Atty. Gen. by Robert E. Okungaro, Sp. Asst. Atty. Gen., Jackson, for appellee. Before PATTERSON, SUGG and ROY NOBLE LEE, JJ. SUGG, Justice, for the Court: This is a joint appeal by Elbert Faye Harris and James Lewis Harris from their convictions by a Simpson County Circuit Court jury of the attempted murder and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon of Robert Lambert. Elbert Faye Harris was sentenced to serve a term of eight years and six months in the custody of the Mississippi Department of Corrections on the firearm conviction and to serve a term of ten years on the attempted murder conviction, the sentences to be served concurrently. James Lewis Harris was sentenced to serve a term of eight years and six months on the firearm conviction and ten years on the attempted murder conviction, the sentences to be served consecutively. Elbert Faye Harris and James Lewis Harris were brothers and will be referred to as defendants. On September 20, 1981, defendants and Robert Lambert, a next door neighbor, got into an argument over the alleged molestation of a girl who lived in Lambert's house. For reasons not important in the disposition of this case, the defendants, having been involved in a scuffle with some of Lambert's family, went to Lambert's home in the early morning hours of September 20, 1981, armed with firearms. When the defendants entered Lambert's house, Lambert was downstairs and the children were upstairs. James Lewis Harris shot *1005 Lambert and his five-year-old daughter. The jury found both defendants guilty of attempted murder of Lambert and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon against Lambert and received their verdicts on September 30, 1981. At the defendants' request, a separate trial was had on October 21, 1981. On November 11, 1981, a verdict of guilty was returned on both charges against Elbert Faye Harris. On the same day, James Lewis Harris was found guilty of attempted murder and guilty of the other charge against him. Both defendants' motions for a new trial
