There are going to be two rafts of people flying in and a few less people coming back. To read the full story on what is going to happen click here. So I thought I would share some pictures with you. Last weekend, I went to the town where we are hosting the party and had lunch in the town square. They have a boardwalk and it goes all the way to the water. All the houses are rented out for the weekend or will be rented out for the weekend. (I am staying in the same house as well) Most of the town is rented out, but when you get to this part, the boardwalk is very narrow so only a few feet on either side. The houses are only about 20 feet wide. There is a farm stand in the square and a lot of the people there were selling fresh eggs. There are chickens around the area as well. I know the chickens are not in cages because the paper on them looked like it was leather. It was kind of a zoo around there. They had a few people walking around with their dogs. It was a fun place to eat. Then we went to go check out the town. It was a cute little town,
