this is a killer game. ive tried that steam crack and it didnt work. Then i found nfs hot pursuit 2.0.4.25 and it worked. I also like the easy to install and weel organized menu system. It also has a really nice interface for gamers, The maps is really cool and the graphics are smooth. The only problem is that the game doesn't save some of the games and even if you do it can still get crashed whenever you make a save in a mission. So maybe fix it so it saves a couple games and hope that won't crash your game when you play it. In an attempt to stay in the game and take it over, Ive recently created some kind of a Hack/Mod of the game. Basically it does the following: - It introduces a new game mode, Party Mode, which is a kind of free-for-all competition where players compete to get the most points in a global league. Thus, its like a normal game of Trivia Crack on steroids. You can play alone, but at the same time there is one global player leaderboard, and all your challenges are connected. So basically, there is an ongoing competition you can participate in in a global time-based league. The latest version of Hot Pursuit for the iPhone. The offline version of the game running on one of the worlds most powerful and popular mobile games platforms. Hot Pursuit is available for free from the App Store. the nfs hot pursuit game has a lot of customization features. you can adjust the intensity of the track, the intensity of the police chase, the appearance of the vehicle you drive and the appearance of the police cars you chase. you can also add a police chopper to your chase so you can blow it up. 5ec8ef588b
