on the other hand, the number of hindi medium schools and colleges in bihar increased manifold after the consolidation of the lalooji's social combination. since then the state has turned hindi and urdu into two different languages. in addition, the social combination of mr lalooji also took over the education sector of the state and the state government actually became a part of the my combination. in this context, the state government started giving preference to hindi and english medium schools and colleges. under this circumstance, the state of bihar started losing its status of being a urdu speaking state. it was sad to see that urdu writers like mirza moinuddin ahmed, ghalib, khwaja niaz ali, sahir ludhianvi and amirali agha have become a part of the history. ritik verma, who has been the editor of bihar ka khabar and bihar ka raaj has been an eloquent spokesman of the urdu language and literature. now he is not only the editor of khabar ka mashobra but also one of the editors of khabar ka aalmi. we do not see any university in the state of bihar. we do not see any urdu magazine in bihar. in fact, urdu language is not a part of the curriculum of the schools of the state. since mr nitish kumar became the chief minister of bihar, a new era has begun in the state of bihar. the lalooji has become the focus of all anti-hindutva activities of the state. he openly declared that if the bjp has been elected to power in the centre, he would ensure that the centre does not do anything to harm the unity and integrity of the country. on the other hand, he made a very interesting announcement that he would not allow his state government to do anything that might hurt the religious sentiments of the muslims in the state. all this has become a very positive factor for the minorities of the state of bihar. but unfortunately, the leader of the minority community, mr laloo prasad yadav has not shown the same interest in the development of the religious sentiment of the muslims in the state. but the state of bihar has made a huge step forward in the development of the minority community. not only the development of the urdu language, but also the promotion of the urdu culture and literature has also become possible.
